Performance Scores on YOUR Criteria

A: Exterior - First Impression

The main entrance to the store was inviting because of the effective lighting and attractive displays. Opening times were not displayed anywhere.

B: Overall Appearance - Aisles

The aisles were a little cramped and narrow. As the store was reasonably busy for it's size it was difficult to move freely within the premises.

B: Overall Appearance - Stock Levels

The stock levels were adequate. I did not notice a single empty display. One or two were running a bit low, but two members of staff were filling the shelves. Some dust needed cleaning from the displays in places.

C: Displays & Promotions - Price Boards & Offers

Most price boards were there but some were mis-aligned and one or two were missing. Only one promotion was to be found within the store and that was in a different department from the products that it featured. One display needed straightening up..

D: Environment & Facilities - Lighting & Cleanliness

Several spotlight bulbs were in need of replacement. This spoilt the otherwise quite eye-catching highlighting effect achieved in many other parts of the shop

The staff were immaculate. All of the staff were quite smartly presented - they had clean uniforms and neat hair, with minimum jewellery and shiny shoes. Everybody looked as though they took pride in their appearance.

F: Cashier & Point of Sale - Comments

I purchased a pair of shoelaces and a writing pad. No-one asked if I would like some envelopes or stamps to go with the writing pad. The cashier, June, was a little bit hurried, as there was a queue starting to build up. She was efficient and very polite though.

Several buying signals were ignored by Helen and by John. There were a few ways they could have handled my enquiry more effectively and these courses of action just did not appear to occur to them. Everything at the till point was fine.

Mystery Shopper Narrative

Overall impression

The store itself is attractive and the staff pleasant enough. It is on the whole a pleasure to visit despite the slightly cramped conditions and the lack of in-depth product knowledge on the part of the staff. These are only minor failings in the scheme of things.

Would you recommend to a friend?

Yes, certainly.

Would you visit again?

Yes. Despite the glitches there is absolutely no doubt about it.
